

The First Thanksgiving

The pilgrims left _____ in 1620 to find a new Place
 _____ . They sailed across the _____ noun noun looking for a _____ land. When they landed in adjective
 America, they found nothing but _____ and Plural noun
 _____ natives. There were no _____ adjective plural noun where they could buy food and no _____ to live in.
plural noun
 They had to _____ from scratch, building houses and verb _____ gardens. The first _____ was verb ending in -ing noun very difficult, and many people _____. In the past tense verb
 spring, the pilgrims started again, _____ vegetables verb ending in -ing and preparing for the next _____ .
adjective noun
 They met a native named _____ who taught them how boy's name to _____ the land. That year after the harvest, the
verb
 _____ thanked the natives by having a _____ plural noun noun for them. The pilgrims and the _____ feasted on many plural noun
 different types of _____ , including _____ ,
noun noun
 _____ corn, and _____. The natives
adjective noun
 and the pilgrims _____ a tradition that became a past tense verb
 _____ holiday.
adjective